KAY'S PREMIUM PLOUGHS. A pleasantly situated three story Brick ed and skilful mechanic, and having been ma-House, on the Corner of Charles 2210 up. years suggest in the manufacture of ploughs, become salisfied that an improvement might be made in them, commenced his experiments which have so happily resulted in producing a plough, which for durability, ease of draft and good work, stands unsurpassed by the best ploughs in the country.

These ploughs received the general approbation of the Penobscot Agricultural Sectory, and a pre-...ium at the Cattle Show and Fair in September

The committee in their report say, in speaking of the plough, "so far as we are capable of judging it is equal if not better than any other we have seen, it is very neatly made and of good form for doing work well and with ease, and in our opinion, s so made as to be less linble to break than any other kind in use."

The Bangur Mechanic Association, by a commit-tee of scientific gentlemen, reported at considerable length in favor of these ploughs. The report states that the "mode by which the general form of this plough is obtained, evinces much ingenuity and skill, and is highly creditable to Col Ray, as a mechanic, the committee congratulate the Association and the community upon the improvements that are being made in aggricultural implements as an evidence that the attention of rejentific men is direct ed towards that part of our national industry." And in concluding their report, they say, "your committee are happy to state that arrangements have been made by which Col. Ray's ploughs are to be manufactured in this city, and onexaminaals and workmanship do credit to the manufacturers and to the city, and believing those ploughs, so far as they can judge, to be unsurpassed by any in use, they cannot doubt that their introduction among the farmers of Penobscot will prove bigaly beaeficial to the country."

The sphilide is have commenced in the manufacture and will be constantly supplied with three superior PLOUGHS, of four size , together with the Side-Hill Plough, made by experienced workmen and of the best materials, which they offer for sale on the most reasonable terms and in any quantity, at their establishment. The, ask with full confi-dence the attention of cultivators to the above named Plough. HINKLEY & EGERY. named Plough.

LORD BROUGHAM'S PORTRAIT OF FRANKLIN.

The following sketch of the American Philos pher is from Lord Brougham's new work, Statesmen in the time of George Itl.

One of the most remarkable men certainly of our times as a politician, or of any age, as a philosopher, was Franklin, who stands sione in combining together these two characters, the greatest that man can sustain, and in this, that having borne the first part in rularging science, by one of the greatest discoveries ever made, he bore the second part in founding one of the In this truly great man, every thing sceme to

Then he had been tried by prosperity as well the perils of both. No ordinary apprentice, no common place journeyman, ever laid the foundation of this industrial forms. ation of his independence in habits of industry and temperance more deep than he did, whose genius was alterwards to rank him with the Galileon and Newtons of the old world. No par trician, born to shine in Courts, or as-ist at the councils of monarchs, ever bore his honors in a lofty station more easily, or was less spoilt by the enjoyment of them than this common workman did when negatiating with royal representatives, or caressed by all the beauty and fush. and one remedy, as practiced by our native last-ans, and acking and by M. North A verican Callege of Health, is beginning now to be generally widerstood. Thousands who have heretology to be edited by every particular disease, now as strespously conterdibat as all our s'eladies proceed from one cauge, so one medicine, capable of removing that cause, will cut every disease incident to a.e...

it disease of the head, or the fact, or the lungs, liver, &c. cach require a peculiar kind of medicine to heal them, would not those parts early require a particular kind of food for their nourishment? But as we know that good, wholesome food nourish on all parts at the system alike, it is manifest therelure, that a good and proper vegetable medicine will, by purifying the blood, search out and semove ou cemplaints owe their ofigin to one naise, viz: the shutting up of those outlets, (the skin, kidneys and bowels) through which nature has intended that all corrupt an luseless matters shall be earried from the body. When these become closed, it is like shutting up of a water course welfter the accumulated waters find a new outlet or the sequitry becores inundated ; just so with the human bony; if the natural drains become closed, the humors accucoulate in the system, and either find yent in the diamental are included and service of the first of the fi tism, cutaneous eruptions, gout, & e. or appoplexy and death ends the scene. The outy sensible metaod, therefore, of preventing and curing disease, is to keep the body continually purged of all the useless and corcopt humors; and for this purpose no medicine with be found so effectual, as the Indian Purgative, because it is the only one whose power extends to the opening of all the natural drains of the body. Whilst under the influence of this singu-dieme, the body will be kept in a gentle but effectual perspiration; a hoper discharge of urme will be experienced, the stomach and bowels will be thoroughly cleansed; and the blood will be stimulated in purity itself.

One very common objection urged by some who but partially understand the principle of curing disease by purgation, as promulgated by the North American College of Health, is that althoughten erated purging will cure disease ; yet that the restroy their tone. Those who raise objections appear to forget that purging is as natural to the bow els as walking is to the feet or labor to the hands and like every other function must be duly exercis-nd in order to rothin their energies. How persons can comprehend the action of vegetable purgatives; by what my sterious process the blood is by them stimulated to deposite its imports t es into the bowels ; or how those organs are excited to evacuate the corrupt humors from the hody all can understand when they experience relief. The gentlemen who compose the North American College of Health would therefore earnesdy invite all who are suffering from disease of any hind to make a trial of the Indian Vegetable Pills. They beg leave to assure the American Public that said Indian Pill are a purgative so justly balanced, that they may be token at all times and under all circumstances with perfect safety, and no dose, how ever small, but will afford some relief, and no quantity, however large, (if it be such as is required to open the howels) can possibly injuré.

Assisting Nature should be our chief study, and for this purpose, the Indian Purgative will be found the most of fectual medicine ever offered and a phalic. Its power bo ing always directed to the opening of those drain through which nature carries with Hilpourities from the body; it affords precisely the amount of assistance she requires to enable her to cuts every variety of discover.
